

Footprints In The Sand

*One night I dreamed a dream.
As I was walking along the beach with my Lord.
Across the dark sky flashed scenes from my life.
For each scene, I noticed two sets of footprints in the sand,
One belonging to me and one to my Lord.*

*After the last scene of my life flashed before me,
I looked back at the footprints in the sand.
I noticed that at many times along the path of my life,
especially at the very lowest and saddest times,
there was only one set of footprints.*

*This really troubled me, so I asked the Lord about it.
"Lord, you said once I decided to follow you,
You'd walk with me all the way.
But I noticed that during the saddest
and most troublesome times of my life,
there was only one set of footprints.
I don't understand why, when I needed You the most,
You would leave me."*

*He whispered, "My precious child,
I love you and will never leave you
Never, ever, during your trials and testings.
When you saw only one set of footprints,
It was then that I carried you."*

Life Story

Margaret (Pearl) Janzen was born March 21st, 1929 in Neuanlage, SK to Jacob and Helena Fehr. She was the 6th oldest in a family of 16 children (two died in infancy). There were 9 brothers and 6 sisters to play with on their family farm.

In 1949, Margaret met the love of her life, Henry Janzen and they were married on August 13th, 1950. The newlyweds moved to Burns Lake, BC where Marv, alias Turk, was born in 1951. Not long after, they moved back to Saskatoon where Evelyn was born in 1954. Margaret and Henry were blessed with two more children, Miles in 1962 and Faith in 1966.

Many cherished grandchildren and great-grandchildren were to follow. Not surprisingly, they were the great joys of Margaret's life, and each was convinced that they were grandma's and great-grandma's favourite.

Margaret's faith-filled life gave her strength through the many joys and heartaches of her life but never more so, as she walked her final journey home to be reunited with Henry, her beloved daughter Faith, and the rest of her cherished family.
