

God Has Called Me Home

When you see the fields and streams
Or count the stars above,
I hope that you'll remember me and think of me with love.

The beauty of the great outdoors
Where once I loved to roam,
Is now a fading memory
Since God has called me home.

My heart belongs to Jesus Christ,
the Truth, the Life, the Way,
So please don't weep or cry for me,
I'm with the Lord today.

Life Story

Arthur Willie Lepp was born on September 7, 1928, to Cornelius and Mary (Klassen) Lepp on the family farm NE of Dalmeny. Art farmed with his brother Paul (his best friend) for 50 years on the family farm. He often said he would not have been able to farm without his brother.

Art enjoyed life besides farming. His many interests involved horseback riding, curling, bowling, motorcycling, snowmobiling, bird banding with Dr. Stuart Houston and his favorite being hunting. Besides hunting locally, the Yukon, and Northwest territories, with friends, Art's final hunting trips were an African Safari to Tanzania in 2002 and Alaska in 2003. As Art often said, "This all came to an end when he trapped the "dear" of his life, and longtime friend, Marilyn." Art and Marilyn were married on March 20, 2004. Art and Marilyn enjoyed life together. They made two road trips to Texas, as well as vacations to Cabo San Lucas, Hawaii and Cancun, Mexico. In December of 2017 Art moved to Spruce Manor in Dalmeny due to health conditions where he peacefully passed away on May 20, 2021.

Art is survived by his wife Marilyn, brother in law George Janzen, his nieces and nephews; Eunice Janzen, Jerry (Carol) Janzen, Jeannette (Francois) Richard, Joel (Susan) Janzen, Valerie (Murray) Martens, Darryl (Leslie) Krahn and their families. Marilyn's children, daughter Jacqueline Hinz; Jonah Bartsch, Niklas Bartsch, son Rodney (Rachael) Hinz; Ella & Spencer; son Glen Hinz. Marilyn's brothers and sisters: Sharon (Sheldon) Carson, Joyce (Reuben) Neufeld, Marcy (Dwayne) Mooney, Dorothy (Howard) Schultz, Beth Baerg, Delphine (Eldon) Neufeld, Wes (Diana) Baerg, Toby (Karen) Baerg and their families. Art was predeceased by his parents Cornelius & Mary Lepp, brothers Henry & Paul, sisters Mary Janzen and Luella (Henry) Krahn.
