

How Great Thou Art

Oh Lord, my God

When I, in awesome wonder

Consider all the worlds Thy hands have made

I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder

Thy power throughout the universe displayed

Chorus: Then sings my soul, my Savior God to Thee

How great Thou art, how great Thou art

Then sings my soul, my Savior God to Thee

How great Thou art, how great Thou art

And when I think that God, His Son not sparing

Sent Him to die, I scarce can take it in

That on the cross, my burden gladly bearing

He bled and died to take away my sin

When Christ shall come, with shout of acclamation

And take me home, what joy shall fill my heart

Then I shall bow, in humble adoration

And then proclaim, my God, how great Thou art

Psalm 23

The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul:

he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,

I will fear no evil: for thou art with me;

thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:

and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.

Life Story

Lydia Driediger was born on March 21, 1936 at home on the farm near Elbow. She passed away on April 14, 2022 at Saskatoon City Hospital. She is survived by her sisters, Anne Driediger, Mary Froese and Frieda Driediger and by her nephews and nieces, John Froese (Ellen), Judy Nagy (Ken), Karen Lilly, Ken Froese (Irene), and Kathryn van Dam, as well as great nephews and nieces and great great nephews and nieces. Lydia was predeceased by her parents, Jacob and Aganetha Driediger and siblings Jake, John, Agnes, Tena, Henry, Helen, two brothers-in-law John Froese and Ben Froese, sister-in-law, Marlene Driediger and by Carol Froese, Bill Lilly and Leo van Dam.

Lydia was baptized on her confession of faith on June 7, 1954 by Reverend George Warkentin, at the Dundurn Mennonite Church. Her faith in her Lord Jesus Christ sustained her all of her life. "Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints". Psalm 116:15

Lydia and her sister Helen farmed together with their brother, Henry, until his passing in 2010. In 2012 Lydia and Helen moved into Bethany Court. After Helen died in 2016, Lydia remained in Bethany Court where she made many good friends. Lydia enjoyed planting flowers and picking apples from her own tree, which she gave away freely. The flowers at Bethany were a small sample compared to the fields of flowers, fruit trees, and vegetables that she grew on the farm. Lydia loved animals and regretted being unable to bring her dog with her when she moved.

Lydia fell and after a successful hip surgery, her health declined. She spent her last three months at Saskatoon City Hospital until her passing early on April 14, 2022.
